certain persons, to remove me from the scene of action. To tring this about I was induced, or instigated, to marry the man calling himself Baron Von Turkheim. We sailed for Englanc.

"During the voyage there were re-peated attempts to poison me with laudanum. When we arrived at Liverpool I discovered among the ef-fects of the man calling himself Baton Von Turkheim certain papers showing him to be a detective employed by Stillwell's agency in San Francisco When I charged him with his duplicity he admitted it. We went to London and took rooms at the Hotel Ceci'. "Monday he paid the hotel bill and left me. I do not know his where abouts. I am penniless and am obliged to go to a boarding house. The bottle of laudanum used against
